Michael Alig's Club Rub

There are slow months and then there are SLOW months. This was a SLOW month. Could it be that everyone is eagerly awaiting the opening of DANCETERIA, now called MARS? Well, if that is the case, then you can all start coordinating your outfits, because MARS is set for habitation later on this month! Meanwhile, back on Earth, KEOKI'S SINFUL SUNDAYS, is back, every Sunday at 535 W. 19th St. Admission is a low, low, LOW $1.00. (Free drinks, however, are included in the admission price from 10:30-11:30... So get there EARLY!)

Back in Space, Wednesday is now the night to visit the WORLD for RICHARD VASQUEZ and some X-tra fun. The fun begins every week at Midnight. Get it? You will... Your favorite on-again, off-again afterhours is off, again. Yep kids, TWILIGHT ZONE, that den of delightful decadence is now closed. However, BENTLEY'S-COPA doorthing - KENNY KENNY guards a new spot on 42nd St. between 8th and 9th Avenues called JAMMIN'. The music is LOUD and it's frightfully close to Port Authority, but it's cute, if you're up at 8am. (And I mean UP!)

I knew the bathrooms at the WORLD were dirty, but there's NO excuse for peeing on doorman MYRA FEILD from the roof of the damn place!!! A coupla' nuts were beaten to a pulp by Myra's thugs for doing just that on one cool, November eve. OH! HOW CHARMIN!!!!!!

It's been confirmed that CHRISTINA DOWNING, of Area and MK fame has been given the chic assignment of being one of the doorpersons who will choose the lucky 1000 who get to see Danceteria/Mars on opening night. Be on your best behavior, kiddies! Dress up and have fun while you can, folks! Our fat, ugly mayor is clamping down HARD on anything and everything! His CLUB TASK FORCE can be seen on a regular basis, harassing customers at PYRAMID, TUNNEL, and several other spots frequented by people who are gay, black, hispanic, short, blonde, poor, or different in any other way. It seems MR. KOCH has something against being different. Hasn't that nelly queen ever heard the old saying, "People in glass houses should never throw stones!"? Apparently not.

"VANITY BEFORE SANITY"- Princess Zoraya

"IF MAKE-UP IS PRESENT, CIGARETTES WILL BE SMOKED"

-Sister Dimention

"SEX ALWAYS INVOLVES MAKE-UP"- Faye Runway

The joy, glamour, and magic of make-up! Time and effort is all it takes to perform miracles. Take it from a drag queen like me. Make-up, and costuming, can transform and ugly slobbering slug into a glittering glamour goddess. Even if you are already pleased with your looks, make-up can enhance. You can also always change the image like, lets say, from a dippy blonde like Vanna White, or from a vixen bitch like Joan Collins; in a fell swoop of a brush stroke, you can look like Sylvia Miles. You can go from a hog to a goddess all within a space of a single evening.

Here are some basic rules of Make-Up:

1. If you are blemished, crater-faced or are just a plain bearded drag queen, wear a thick coat of oil based foundation. If you are hypo-allergenic, I'm sorry for you because water base make-up is bound to dribble.
 2. Whether or not you wear base, OVER-powder. There is nothing more pathetic than a shiny nose or chin, when the focus must always be on the eyes and the mouth.
 3. Everyone must wear brows. (Two of them). Drag queens may wear more than two-one on top of the other, that is. I'm not at all a fan of the monobrow school, unless of course they were joined by make-up to portray a hag.
 4. MASCARA-everyone must wear mascara. If you do not have eyelashes, wear false ones. No ifs, ands, or buts. Eyeliner is applied with upward sweeps at the corner of your eyes. If you do not know how to apply eye-liner, just gob on lots of cheap mascara.
 5. Lipstick goes ON the lips. If you do not have lips, well, you are a hag. But you can draw them in. Make sure the color of the lipstick is within the boundaries of the lip liner-and not bleeding onto your cheeks, chin, or up your nose.
 6. Color blush goes on the cheekbone. Contour goes below.
 7. If you have a potato for a nose, please practice some subtle shading, but make sure it doesn't look like dirt.
- Make-up can do as much as plastic surgery, which is really only a permanent form of make-up. Make-up is essential and anyone can learn how to use it to one's advantage. It is 1989; There is no need to be ugly, unless you have chosen the Hag Heritage.

Jungle tribe goes ape over dresses found in plane wreck

HIGH FASHION HEADHUNTERS

By HENRY WEBER

A savage band of headhunters has been dressing like a million bucks since a cargo plane loaded with designer dresses crashed in the Amazon, a top scientist reports.

"It's like something out of The Twilight Zone," Dr. Otto Freedman, the German anthropologist, told reporters in Frankfurt.

"These Amazon headhunters are among the most primitive people on the planet. And yet they're strutting around the jungle like New York socialites in high fashion gowns and dresses.

"Some of those costumes would sell for $25,000 apiece in fashion centers like Rio, New York and Paris."

Dr. Freedman said that he discovered the elegantly dressed tribe of headhunters a few hundred miles west of Porto de Moz, Brazil, in late September.

He later learned that they got the dresses out of a cargo plane that crashed in the rain forest last summer. "The crew of the plane either died in the crash or were killed by the headhunters," said Dr. Freedman. "The tribe had no qualms about taking the cargo.

"As far as they're concerned, those dresses were shipped to them directly from the gods."

The expert estimated that the headhunters gathered up as many as 50 dresses from the wreckage of the plane.

Dr. Freedman said the fashion wear seems to be holding up well under the harsh jungle conditions.

Problem Princess

DEAR JEWELS

Dear Jewels,

I'm having problems with my dry cleaners! They've ruined my red Christmas ensemble. When they cleaned it, the red bled on to the white fur trim and now the fur is pink!! Should I be a swishy Santa and just wear it, or should I have my elves make me a new one?

-Santa Claus

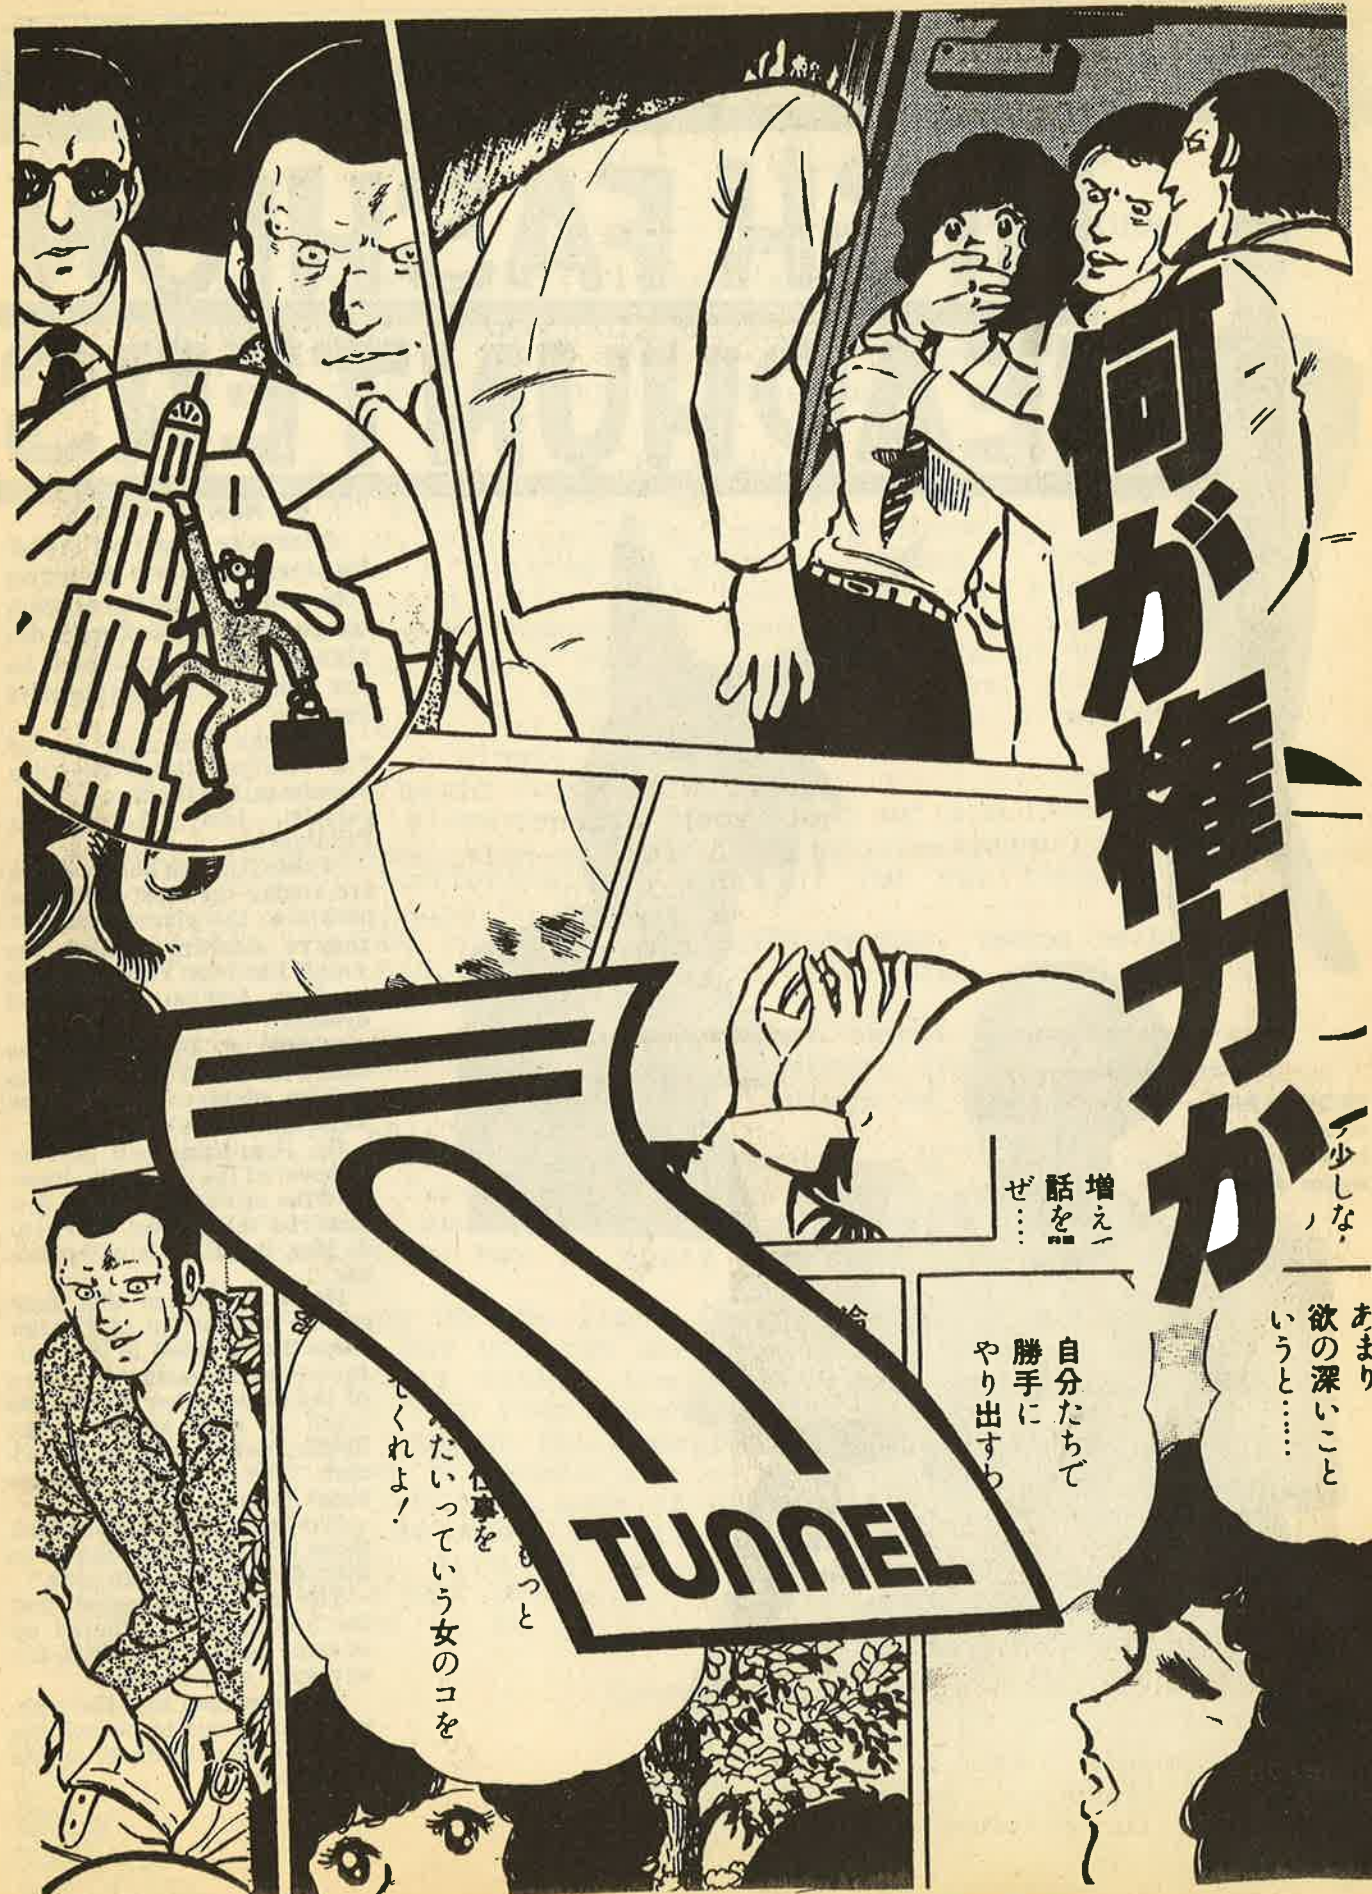

Dear Santa,

Don't worry, a red outfit with pink fur sounds fabulous but now that I've got your attention, I want to give you my Christmas list: A full length white fox coat, a diamond bracelet, liquid eyeliner, Lee press-on nails, "Fifth Avenue Red" Lancome lipstick, another white fur, (it can be a fake one this time), and a gift certificate worth five drink tickets to Stephen Saban

Miss Jewels with a trendy Santa Claus - note the leather fur trimmed jacket.

BY JOHN SIMONE

MAMIE VAN DOREN

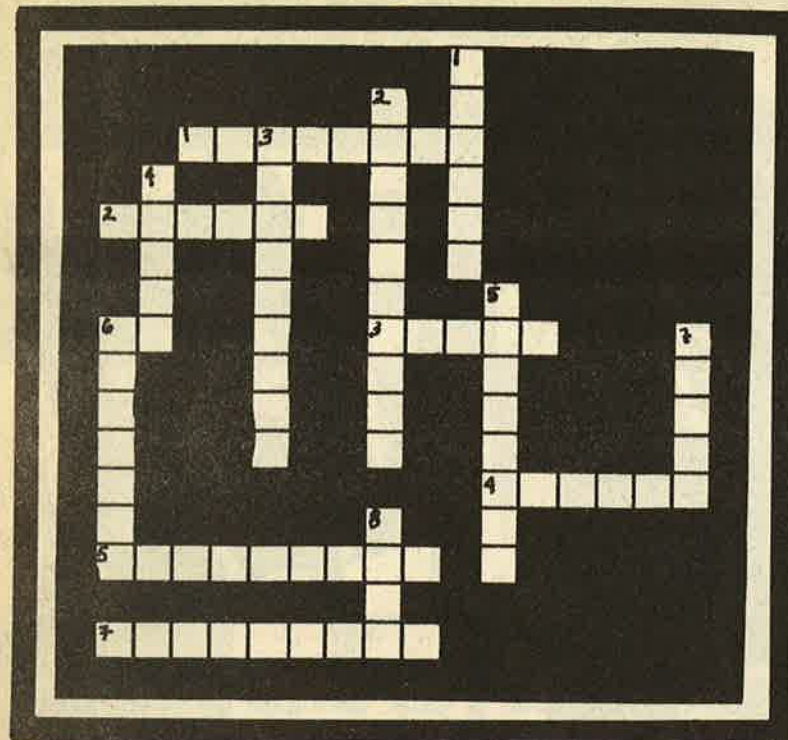

DEBBIE HARRY

Fame, fortune and rivers of diamonds running down a gals cleavage is the story of many a Hollywood starlet. Those sleazoid swengalis that seem so much a part of the Hollywood story never get around to the guts and gore of ga-ga land. No agent in his/her right mind is going to tell their sweet little star in the making that after the million-dollar contract is signed out the window goes privacy, decency and the right to live ones life as one chooses. For example, lets take Marilyn Monroe's story and all of its wonderful cliches of life in... The Public Eye. The affairs and marriages and casting couch humiliations all led this little girl down the path to ...Drugs...Doom...and Destruction. We care so fervidly about Poor Marilyn because bit the big barbituate at her prime. If she were still here she'd have as much respect as (and probably looklike) Shelley Winters her one-time roommate. But, hey, why lament, it's almost the Glorious Nineties and we still have Mamie van Doren whose autobio of last year trashed Hollywood grandly. Mamie did it all over Hollywood but for her pleasure not anyone elses, which is why she survived. You can be sexy and powerful enough to call the shots(I love assertive women!) Mamie is a Fifties Icon which gains her entrance to my Has-been Hall of Fame.

Rock and Roll has its starlets too!(In fact, Mamie was labeled as the Girl who Invented Rock and Roll in one of her finest trash flick roles.) Debbie Harry defined that role in the punk era and Madonna usurped the role while Debbie had her back turned. Debbie was the 'Rip Her to Shreads' gal of many a punks' wet dreams. Now she has left it for character roles in the movies. Her early starlet roles in Roadie and Videodrome lacked lasting presence(the movies lacked everything) but in Hairspray she was one heck of a dandy dame. Mamie and Debbie could play sisters in a remake of 'Baby Jane'.

This whole 'starlet thing' can be applied quite easily to some male Hollywood victims, one who will not be this aspiring celebrity. I've auditioned for a 'Method' acting course with the aforementioned Ms Shelley 'Bag Lady' Winters and well although she was not tickled pink by my heart-wrenching, cat-bashing fist-slamming performance, she surprisingly treated me with a decency that I'd've assumed would be absent from an Oscar winner such as she. Oh well, cliches die hard. This boys dream would be to star with Harry as his mother and Doren and Winters as his grannies. What a comedy of ill-manners that would be. Yeah, I know, I have the weirdest aspirations. Well, 'til the next Celeb-Sheet happens, I'm out of here.

CLUB!

Looking back on 1988, the Celebrity Club stands out as one weekly event that polarized the often stuffy NY club scene. Stuffy, it was not, but classy, it was not either. If the year is to be remembered as a "back to glamour year", then the Celebrity Club was the hormonal underbelly pumping and throbbing to the energy of both the club kids and the established nightlife superstars. Decorated in streamers and cardboard cutouts, the night was definately a toilet paper affair. With the infamous and often out of control wet-em down contest and weekly top 10 music countdown, one never knew what to expect. It was not unusual to see hot young straight boys dancing nearly nude, while over-zealous Drag Queens poured water over them. Nor was it unusual to see Die-hard perverts from Manhattan truely "Alternative" Club such as Obsessions, The Vault or the former Hellfire club, partying down with wholesome Prep school students. But that was the fun of it all. Strangely enough, the story didn't start at the Tunnel...

In 1986, Atlanta became the host city to the Celebrity Club. Along with the help of La Homa Vn Zandt and such current NY Celebutants like Lady Bunny, RuPaul, Flloyyd and Trade, The hotspot showcased everything from the Butthole Surfers to the enormously successful, "female mud-wrestling". The sight of mud-wrestling champion, 'Mad-dog Marlowe' and one of her opponents kissing in the mud was an eye-opener. But as with all good things, the club closed and it's hosts Larry Tee and La Homa packed up and moved to NYC. The Pyramid Club, who had supported their band, "La Palace de Beaute" and "The now explosion" let them have a night title Disco '88 where they were discovered by nightlife mogul, Michael Alig who immediately set them up a night at Tunnel.

Now it prepares to open again at the Danceteria/Mars Club and promises to deliver a new format full of surprises. Last year, celeb's like Dianne Brill, Michael Musto, Diamonda Galas, John Sex and Stephan Saban all helped make it a 'happening' while introducing new talents (celebutantes) from the recently invigorated club scene. This year the best entertainment from around the globe will be featured as well as funny new gimmicks and give-aways. The Human money-tree, for example, will be a scantily clad hunk or hunkette covered only in dollar bills that will run through the crowd inviting people to snatch a bill or two.

So, be on the look-out for the all new Celebrity club, it's coming soon to a Nightclub near YOU!!!

20 YEARS FROM NOW!

Remember...you read it here first!

In year 2005, the US became "Senile Nation", after electing and re-electing Bush and the return of Reagan for two more mandates from 1997 to 2005. In despair, democrats exhumed the cryogenically preserved body of John F. Kennedy and bring him back to life. His brain damage in Dallas was too much though and Kennedy fucks-up royally by declaring "We Shall Return" when asked about Vietnam...

TRENDY KIDS UNIVERSALLY ADOPT "VIDEOHAIR"

In year 2010, many diseases, like cancer, heart condition and ulcers will be closely associated with sexual repression and chastity. To stay in good health, everybody will say YES to anything, and try to fuck many times a day with anybody they can find. If the sexual partner is not that interesting, people will just turn-on the TV in his hair and get aroused with the latest "Porno-Gore" features, while drilling away! They are the Couch Cucumbers.

HOW BIG WERE THE STARS FROM YESTERYEAR?

New collections of candid photos were made public around year 2008 and shed some light on the real artistic potential of some Hollywood stars. According to these sources, Cary Grant and Bela Lugosi definitely acted on both ends of the market, Arnold Schwarzenegger was really small, Tom Selleck was a big asshole and Brando & Kirk Douglas, well... judge it by yourself!

MICHAEL JACKSON'S 52nd quasar-laser plastic surgery fails and his body starts rapidly to age one-year-a-day until only a deformed mass of dried-out leather remains. Videotapes of Jackson's final decomposal while he sings "What a Way to Go" reach a new worldwide record in sales.

ALCAZAR
 DE PARIS

What do you get when you put together a room full of French speaking Drag Queens, an over abundance of feathers, an endless sea of sequins and a "Jessica Rabbit" look-a-like with a pee-pee? That's right... ALCAZAR DE PARIS! A French experience you will never forget...on Broadway! It's a flavour of Pigalle and of Paris on "le Rive Gauche"!

This year, the ALCAZAR DE PARIS on the left bank of Paris, celebrates its twentieth Anniversary with its opening here in New York. Couturier Francois Salem, oversaw the making of 170 elaborate costumes. 20 very lucky chorus girls and "assorted male dancers" are currently sporting 150 various wigs hand made for this production. The ruffles on the Can-Can costumes alone took 600 yards of fabric to make!

The show begins with high kicking Can-Can girls and goes on to entertain you for an hour and a half with more dancing, singing fashion and much, much more! The fabulous French MC loses his fabulous French accent by the end of the show. However, International Crisis gives a most incredible performance. She enters stage right, as sex kitten extraordinaire, the woman (?) all women want to be(??) 36...24...36.....9! Alcazar de Paris also features dinner... (but unlike the show, the dinner can be missed!)

MONGERS ABOUT

RUDOLF IS ON A ROLL

Grand-Master-Club-Monger, Rudolf, is slowly emerging from his cave of hibernation. The poor pony-tailed King has been soooo busy working on his new club. "Now that the work is done, it's time for me to roll around the clubs a little bit", sez he!

HOT ON THE PRESS

Famous club owner Mr. F. Roccio has been receiving quite a bit of publicity on his new club "lift up your skirt and fly". The club was due to open last November, then in January, now in February! Is this pressmonger going to make the same promises as with the World and keep us waiting for a year?

HOUSE ROCKED

Shade was bouncing off the walls as the House of Extravaganza was plotting against one of their members Abraham-for... using the Ex name on club invites???? "we are an elegant uptown House, not downtown partymongers!"-they say.

TOWN!

SPOILED DESIGNER

Wrecked-is probably the best word to describe Giorgio di Sant' Angelo at a party given in his honor at El Morocco. The distinguished designer was asked to PAY for his cocktail!! Is downtown corrupting Mr. Sant'Angelo? Does he expect free admission and free drinks in every club? Will he follow the trend and change his name? Mr. G di Jello?

GERTRUDE STEIN IS BACK IN TOWN!

Did you know that Gertrude Stein used to throw tea parties on Sunday afternoons and invite a different crowd of people to each one! It was THE social event in Paris and it was most prestigious to receive an invitation to it. Well, today Gertrude is replaced by R. Couri Hay along with Scott Curry. He throws a dinner party at some restaurant every Saturday for a prince or a count or a duke and if you haven't been invited, you're a nobody!

RULING ROCK-N-ROLLER

Three years ago, Tommy Gunn was the "boy of the minute". Now he's catering a different crowd-punk, rock and rollers from New York and LA. He doesn't believe in mixing the 2 crowds..."Your people could teach my people some BAD habits, like open bars and comp admissions!" (Ha! says Project X) Mr. Gunn runs Cat Club, Virgin Outlaw, Sanctuary, and Owns the GUNN Club- all at the tender age of 22.

GOLDEN SHOWER

While Myra Field was being door...person at the World, a couple of scandalmongers gained access to the roof and showered Ms. Myra with bodily excretions. She was in head-to-toe fur.

HEAD-TO-TOE OVERNESS

At the Avis Pendavis Ball-the winner (of the best dressed gay women's Category) was none other than Ms. Patricia Field - in head-to-toe fur.....?

FASHION CARES?

FASHION CARES was the first "fashion" AIDS benefit held in NYC. Lauren Hutton hosted the event, while Tommy Tune and Susan Sarandon tried desperately, to auction off fabulous fashions donated by Hot NY designers (such as the FABULOUS MICHAEL SCHOELER, Carolina Herrera, Carolyn Rhoem and others). Much to their chagrin, the response, poor (from the rich of course). Are these 7th Ave fashion-selling mongers really that selfish?

MUSTO SHARES HIS SPOTLIGHT

The in-famous Sucreet Gable hosted a party for the gossip king Michael Musto at El Morocco. Did she steal the show? Was she the center of attention?? Were there more photos taken of her than of Michael??? Is MM jealous or will he share the spotlight? "She's the sweetest, most honest person I've ever met" he said, "I knew it from the moment I saw her on TV in front of the courthouse"
